What is the Homestead Exemption? The homestead exemption provides a reduction in property taxes to a qualifying senior or disabled citizen, on the dwelling that is that individual's principal place of residence and up to one acre of land of which an eligible individual is an owner. The reduction is equal to the taxes that would otherwise be charged on up to $25,000 of the market value of an eligible taxpayer's home. The reduction for 100% Service-Connected Disabled Veterans would be equal to the taxes that would otherwise be charged on up to $50,000 of the market value of an eligible taxpayer's home.

What your signature means: By signing the application, you affirm under penalty of perjury that your statements on the application are true, accurate, and complete to the best of your knowledge and belief and that you are authorizing the tax commissioner and the county auditor to review financial and tax information filed with the state. A conviction of willfully falsifying information on this application will result in the loss of the homestead exemption for a period of three years.

Qualifications for the Homestead Exemption: To receive the homestead exemption you must be (1) at least 65 years of age during the year you first file, or be determined to have been permanently and totally disabled (see definition) as of Jan. 1, or be a surviving spouse (see definition), and (2) own and have occupied your home as your principal place of residence on Jan. 1 of the year in which you file the application. A person only has one principal place of residence; your principal place of residence determines, among other things, where you are registered to vote and where you declare residency for income tax purposes. If you expect to qualify based on age, you will be required to present evidence of age. If the property is being purchased under a land contract, is owned by a life estate or by a trust, or the applicant is the mortgagor of an outstanding mortgage on the property, you may be required to provide copies of any contracts, trust agreements, mortgages, or other documents that identify the applicant's eligible ownership interest in the home.

If you are applying for homestead your total income cannot exceed the amount set by law. "Total Income" is defined as the adjusted gross income for Ohio income tax purposes (line 3 of Ohio income tax return) of the owner and the owner's spouse for the year preceding the year for which you are applying. If you do not file an Ohio income tax return, adjusted gross income includes compensation, rents, interest, fees and most other types of total income. Certain Social Security and disability benefits are not included in adjusted gross income. If you are unsure of what income is included, contact your county auditor. You will be required to produce evidence of income.

Current Application: If you qualify for the homestead exemption for the first time this year (for real property) or for the first time next year (for manufactured or mobile homes), check the box for Current Application on the front of the application.

Late Application: If you also qualified for the homestead exemption for last year (for real property) or for this year (for manufactured or mobile homes) on the same property for which you are filing a current application, but you did not file a current application for that year, you may file a late application for the missed year by checking the Late Application box on the front of the application. You may only file a late application for the same property for which you are filing a current application.

Definition of a Surviving Spouse: An eligible Surviving spouse must (1) be the surviving spouse of a person who was receiving the homestead by reason of age or disability for the year in which the death occurred, and (2) must have been at least age 59 on the date of the decedent's death & must meet all other homestead exemption requirements.

Permanent Disability: Permanent and totally disabled means a person who has, on the first day of January of the year for which the homestead exemption is being requested, some impairment of body or mind that makes him/her unfit to work at any substantially remunerative employment which he/she is reasonably able to perform and which will, with reasonable probability, continue for an indefinite period of at least twelve months without any present indication of recovery, or who has been certified as totally and permanently disabled by an eligible state or federal agency.

Total Income: "Total Income" is defined by Ohio law to be the Ohio Adjusted Gross Income (OAGI) of the owner and spouse for the year preceding the year in which a homestead application is made.
